DAVID LAWRENCE CENTER NAMES ROB WILKINSON EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR, ANNOUNCES PROMOTION

Naples, FL – The David Lawrence Center, Collier County’s only comprehensive, not-for-profit mental health and substance abuse treatment facility serving children, adults and families, is pleased to announce that Rob Wilkinson has been named the David Lawrence Center Employee of the Year. Along with this honor, the Center has recently promoted him to Accounting Supervisor.

Wilkinson joined David Lawrence Center as a staff accountant in 2012. Prior to joining the Center, he worked as a bookkeeper for a private hanger at Southwest Florida International Airport and several small companies in Miami and Ft. Lauderdale. He earned his Bachelor’s of Arts in Accounting from Florida International University.

Prior to being named Employee of the Year, Wilkinson was also recognized for his hard work and work ethic by being receiving an Outstanding Team Player Award in 2013. In addition to doing a great job on the job, he also supports David Lawrence Center off the clock having served as a volunteer at the Annual Gala and attending the Young Executive Events whenever he can.

Wilkinson’s supervisor Scott Geltemeyer, Chief Financial Officer, shares, “It is rare to find such a dedicated, hardworking, knowledgeable employee. He shows up each day with a great attitude, is willing to learn and is respected by all.”

David Lawrence Center is the Southwest Florida-based, not-for-profit leading provider of behavioral health solutions dedicated to inspiring and creating life-changing wellness for every individual. The Center provides innovative, comprehensive inpatient, outpatient, residential and community based prevention and treatment services for the one in four local children and adults who experience mental health, emotional, psychological and substance abuse challenges.
